SUPERVISORS TO MARCH IN MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY PARADE

40th annual parade, free festival sponsored by UMOS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisors Peggy Romo West and Marina Dimitrijevic will march in the 40th annual Mexican Independence Day Parade in Milwaukee on Sunday.

The parade is followed by a free festival at UMOS that runs until 8:00 p.m. The carnival-style festival features music, games, food, merchandise and community resource exhibits.

“We look forward to participating in this year’s parade, and we’re excited to honor Jesus Salas for serving as Parade Marshall this year,” both Supervisors said in a joint statement.

The parade follows a new route this year, beginning at South Division High School and ending at UMOS at 2701 S. Chase Avenue.
